Levelland Ranch Rodeo Results

Sandhill Cattle Company, First Place Team

WILD-COW MILKING WAS THE DECIDING FACTOR IN WHICH team won the TSCRA Levelland Ranch Rodeo, July 18. The bronc riding, team doctoring and team branding competitions set up a 3-team showdown in the last segment.

Spires Land and Cattle and Tongue River Ranch were in first and second place going into the wild-cow milking, and were tied after their respective runs.

The final team, Sandhill Cattle Company, needed to beat the earlier 36-second runs to win the entire rodeo.

Team captain Tripp Townsend made quick work of the roping and the rest of the team worked hard to put together a fabulous 30-second run to take home the championship.

Spires Land and Cattle won a tiebreaker for second place and Tongue River Ranch finished third.

Arrest Made in Case of Felony Livestock Theft

TONY EUGENE LYON, 51, OF Perrin, was arrested on July 29 and charged with first degree felony theft of livestock of over $200,000 after allegedly stealing steers from a Nebraska rancher. TSCRA Special Ranger John Bradshaw led the investigation.

According to Bradshaw, a Nebraska-based cattle-marketing agency received an order from the victim to buy some steers. The agency contacted Lyon to supply the steers.

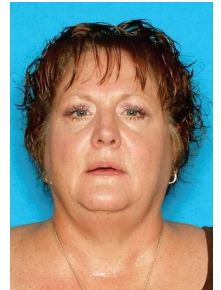

After the victim wrote a check to the marketing agency, Lyon received a check from the agency for $791,000. The victim then went to Lyon's property in Perrin to look at the steers and decided to turn them out on a wheat pasture until they could be shipped. Lyon agreed to take care of the steers.

However, when the victim returned to check on the steers, Lyon told him he didn't have them anymore and that he had to get rid of them to take care of some prior obligations.

Lyon was arrested, arraigned and charged with theft of livestock of over $200,000, a first degree felony. He was held at the Jack County jail on a $1 million bond.
