Cattle Health & Well-Being

Guest Speaker

Dr. Alex Turner is a graduate of Colorado State University's veterinary school back in 2002. After a 13-year career in private large animal practices in Texas, Nevada and Colorado, he began working for the State Veterinarian's Office in Colorado in 2015 as the Traceability Veterinarian. In 2019 Dr. Turner began work for USDA/APHIS Veterinary Services with the National Animal Disease Traceability and Veterinary Accreditation Center as a senior staff veterinarian. Dr. Turner became the Assistant Director of the Center in October of 2019, and recently was named the permanent Director of the Center.
