PROPERTY RIGHTS AND TAX COMMITTEE

Guest Speaker

Kent Bacus serves as Executive Director, Government Affairs, for the National Cattlemen's Beef Association (NCBA). Kent leads the Business Policy team that manages issues such as tax, credit, international trade, and cattle markets. For several years, Kent has served as NCBA's lead on international trade policy where he worked with Congress, the Biden Administration, and foreign governments to advance the U.S. cattle and beef industry's trade priorities and expand U.S. beef access to foreign markets. Bacus continues to represent NCBA as a cleared advisor on the USDA Agricultural Technical Advisory Committee for Trade in Animals and Animal Products, and he also holds leadership positions in the International Meat Secretariat where he represents NCBA in international forums. Bacus also leads NCBA's policy efforts on tax and financial services issues.
