

Jennifer Rabb

President

Texas Taxpayers and Research Association

Jennifer Rabb is President of Texas Taxpayers and Research Association. Prior to joining the association, she was a fellow at the Baker Institute for Public Policy and previously served as tax policy advisor to the Lt. Governor of Texas, clerk of the Texas House Ways and Means Committee, and tax policy director for the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts.

Rabb holds a J.D. from The University of Texas School of Law and an LL.M. in Taxation from Southern Methodist University's Dedman School of Law. As an attorney in private practice, she represented taxpayers on state and local tax matters for more than 15 years.